

Geography Endpoints

To be able to understand the geographical location of places and their physical and human features, to name and locate countries and their continents.

To be able to identify and describe the geographical significance of latitude, longitude, equator, northern/southern hemisphere, the Tropics of Cancer and Capricorn, Arctic and Antarctic Circle and understand the significance of the geographic zones of the world.

To be able to understand geographical representations through skills of navigation, using atlases and maps, ordnance survey symbols and compass points.

Describe and understand key aspects of physical geography, including climate zones, biomes and vegetation, and volcanoes and earthquakes.

Describe and understand key aspects of human geography, including settlements, land use, economic activity and distribution of natural resources including energy, food, minerals and water supplies.